Steven Ross, was born and raised in north east England. He achieved a music degree from Leeds College of Music playing saxophone as his main instrument.
His professional career started out on cruise lines playing in the theatre orchestra. He then transitioned back to land to become a GenEd teacher to elementary students in a small English school.
He moved to the USA in 2007 to combine his love of music and education to become a Music Teacher. He has taught in 7 Pinellas County Schools in the past 13 years. He now proudly works at Brooker Creek Elementary in Tarpon Springs.
